Dear Parents/Guardians

Rescheduled: Grade Two Excursion to Richmond on Monday, 24 June

Further to correspondence dated 10 May 2019, please be aware that Grade Two's excursion to Richmond has now been rescheduled to Monday, 24 June. All other details of the excursion remain the same.

Date: Monday, 24th June 2019

Location: Richmond

Time: Departing at 9:00am returning approximately 2:40pm

Transport: Wisby's Coaches

Students will need to wear their full sport uniform and bring their spray jacket or warm coat. Please ensure students have their drink bottle, piece of fruit and recess for morning tea at Richmond. A sausage sizzle will be provided for lunch. However, if your child does not want a sausage they will need to bring their own lunch.

Students will be accompanied and supervised by their class teachers Mrs Anne-Marie McWatters, Miss Lisa Wheeldon and Mr Jonathan Horne.

Assistance from parents or guardians will be greatly appreciated. Please note you must have a valid WWVP (Working With Vulnerable People) check. Volunteers will need to travel to and from Richmond in their own car, as seating on the bus will be limited.
